Notice Regarding Consumer Reports
Insurance companies commonly ask an outside source to verify and add to the information given in an application. Consumer reports are used to help us decide if you are eligible for the insurance you have applied for. If the report affects your application as requested, we will notify you and provide you with the name and address of the reporting firm.

We use the report only to be sure that each application is evaluated on a fair basis. We will not reveal any of the information we obtain to your friends or associates. It will be given only to the extent permitted by these laws: the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act as amended by the Consumer Credit Reporting Reform Act of 1996; your state's Fair Credit Reporting Act, if any; or your state's Insurance Information and Privacy Protection Act, if any. If you wish, we will send you the name, address and phone number of any agency we ask to prepare a consumer report about you.
